Club News:

Theresa Marie Ellender is working on stationary for the club and will present samples for members to vote on.

State Representative Paul Hollis has again extended an invitation for members of the BLRW to be his guests at the Capitol in Baton Rouge during the Legislative session. We have picked May 5th as the tentative date for this event. We will be able to sit in on morning committee meetings, have lunch with Representative Hollis, and then listen to the General Legislative Session in the afternoon. Please let me know if you would like to attend so we can let Representative Hollis know and for us to make travel arrangements.

Political Information:
