

PRESS RELEASE APRIL 18, 2018

Republican Women of Central 2018 College Scholarship Award Dinner

The Republican Women of Central presented their annual Scholarship to a local graduating high school senior of exceptional character, academic excellence and brilliant career goals. RWC members & guests were inspired & informed by the success stories shared by their 2 outstanding "Women of Achievement" Guest Speakers, State Representative Valarie Hodges, District 64 & Central Intermediate School Principal, Rhonda Taylor. RWC's 2017 Scholarship Recipient, Ms. Anna Grace Dean, shared her 1st year college story, focusing on her successes & unexpected, yet delightful discovery "that it is okay to change your mind"!

RWC President, Leah Veck was honored to present MISS KAELYN GRACE KENDRICK, 2018 Scholarship Winner, with her $1000 Scholarship check & other gifts! The evening ended with congratulatory praise, photo opts & a celebratory dessert for all!

Look out Southeastern Louisiana University! A superstar freshman is heading your way!

Joyful family members Diane Duplessis, Carroll Campbell, Sandra Campbell, proud mother Staci Jones & Scott Jones congratulate & applaud Kaelyn Grace's high achievement & recognition!
