November 2021
President's Message

Mandeville Republican Women

In the Spring of 1984, Lane Carson, state chairman of the Reagan/Bush campaign, and DeNell Haines, a dedicated Republican woman, hosted an organizational meeting for 17 women who believed that with the current population growth of the Mandeville area, the time was right for a new Republican women's club. Their efforts were rewarded with a tremendous response! On May 17, 1984, the Mandeville Women's Republican Club received its charter from the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW), officially establishing it as an affiliate club of both the NFRW and the Louisiana Federation of Republican Women (LFRW). DeNell Haines was elected the club's first president and good things began to happen!

Dedicated to supporting the principles of the Republican Party and the objectives of the national and state federations, the club was determined to be a well-organized, active, and effective participant in the political arena. Therefore, they immediately established a Regan/Bush Victory Team Headquarters and organized voter registration at Mandeville City Hall.

As the club matured and membership grew, the scope of their political efforts and activities, and their involvement in community programs and projects expanded as well. In 1986, the club began hosting fundraisers for candidates and local charities; coordinating campaign efforts and volunteer support; providing forums for candidates and elected officials to meet their constituents and hear from the voters; recruiting and training candidates to run for office; visiting the state Legislature to develop relationships with elected officials; and providing voter education and information to all interested citizens. To this day, these activities and programs continue to be the focus of the volunteer efforts of MRW.

Through these many activities, the club soon became recognized as a powerful volunteer political force locally and throughout the state. In 1988, perhaps one of the club's most rewarding years in terms of achievements and volunteer hours, members played a major role in hosting the RNC Convention in New Orleans. It's the national convention that people still talk about to this day! Since then, the club has received many awards and recognition at several NFRW and LFRW conventions for their achievements. Those include NFRW Diamond and Gold Awards, club awards for Fundraising, Community Service, Membership Growth, and Literacy. Naturally, in conjunction with the club's success over the years, along the way many MRW members have been recognized for their leadership and service; many have run for office; and many have been appointed or elected to a variety of offices and positions at the local, state, and national levels. MRW is proud of our members who have committed themselves to public service!

Many exciting local events were/are known as "signature activities" of Mandeville Republican Women. They include the Fall Card Party; the Christmas Membership Tea and Auction, the Candidates' Jazz Brunch and Glad Hatters' Competition, Storybook Christmas, and the "Passion for Fashion" Fashion Show, just to name a few. Likewise, MRW is known for its support of Habitat for Humanity, Breast Cancer research, Special Olympics, the "Up With Words" Dictionary Project, Support Our War Heroes, the St. Tammany Association for Retarded Citizens, and other local charities and projects. The success of these events; our accomplishments on behalf of our candidates and good government; our commitment to our community; and the continued growth and vitality of MRW is a tribute to our officers and members. For 25 years, members of Mandeville Republican Women have been dedicated to making a difference in and for the community. Today, we celebrate our accomplishments; we honor those who believed in our mission and helped us get started; and thank those who have led us through this rewarding adventure.

We welcome the challenges that lie ahead and invite you to join us as we continue to grow and succeed.

This history of MRW has been added to our LFRW website, which may be viewed at <https://www.lfrw.org/mandeville-rwc.html>.

November MRW Meeting

MRW has always loved and supported our Military. Lane Carson has been involved with Veterans' affairs for many years, and as long-time members are aware, he is one of the hosts for organizing the Mandeville Republican Women club. Lane has accepted our invitation to speak at the November meeting, as November 11 is Veterans Day.

Please plan to attend.

The next MRW meeting will be November 4th.
Social time begins at 11:00 a.m. with the meeting/lunch beginning at 11:30 a.m.

MRW's Dictionary Project

READING MAKES A COUNTRY GREAT

By Mary Jenks, MRW Literary Chairman – Dictionary Project

It is with great pleasure that Mandeville Republican Women will distribute dictionaries to the third-grade children at Lyon Elementary School this year!

The goal of the Dictionary Project is to ensure that third graders will be able to enjoy the benefits of owning their own dictionary. You may be interested in a few statistics nationwide concerning the Dictionary Project:

33,873,797+ children nationwide have received a dictionary to date

78,048+ dictionaries have been distributed thus far nationwide

2021 marks the 25th anniversary of the Dictionary Project and MRW are so very proud to be a part of this worthwhile endeavor

The Dictionary Project was created twenty-five years ago to improve literacy in South Carolina which was ranked 50th in the nation in reading comprehension. More than 50 states, plus Puerto Rico, Canada, Mexico, Caribbean Islands, Peru, Afghanistan, Nepal, and throughout Africa dictionaries have been distributed to students to help them learn and understand new words.

It has truly been an honor to donate dictionaries to the third graders at Lyon and just to touch your heart, kindly read this thank you letter below from a precious little girl-cited from The Dictionary Project newsletter, Summer 2021. You can see why MRW makes this project one of our top priorities. (You must appreciate the inventive spelling!!!):

A Very Successful NFRW Convention

Soaring Speeches from Top GOP Leaders and Internationally Respected Experts

The 41st Biennial NFRW Convention lifted off on a high note with a welcome reception that featured both U.S. Senator Tim Scott (SC) and Florida Governor Ron DeSantis.

"As the Governor of Florida, it is my privilege to welcome you to the freest state in the union of states," Governor DeSantis proclaimed to the enthusiastic crowd at Friday's opening reception. He added: "Florida has a Governor who fights back. Biden doesn't like the fact that we are fighting against his lockdowns, shutdowns and mandates... We're never going to spend tax dollars teaching kids to hate our country and to hate each other."

Governor Ron DeSantis: Our state represents a brick wall against wokeness.

Senator Tim Scott: Never will we allow the federal government to nationalize our local police departments.

Sharing his own personal story of growing up in a poor, single-parent household and, after failing several high school courses, turning his life around thanks to a mom who stuck with him and a mentor who showed him the wisdom of conservative principles, Senator Scott focused on opportunity. He optimistically predicted: "We will take our country back, and America will smell the sweet scent of freedom."

Call to Action

Tell Your Representatives How You Feel about Washington's Woke Agenda

Welcome August Recess! Members of the U.S. House and Senate will be back home, and Federation members are encouraged to visit them at their local office or attend a town hall and deliver a strong message on NFRW priority issues.

"Congress is in recess, but NFRWarriors aren't resting," said NFRW President Ann Schockett. "We're kicking our activism into high gear to let our representatives know we oppose the woke agenda in Washington."

- Election Integrity. The Senate will take up a motion to consider S. 1 when it returns in September; Nancy Pelosi is calling House Democrats back on August 23 to take up H.R. 4. Voice your opposition to legislation that undermines the integrity of elections and invites fraud (read more here).
- $3.5 Trillion "Everything is Infrastructure" Plan. The second item on Nancy Pelosi's agenda for the August 23 session is passing a budget resolution to advance the Democrats' reckless $3.5 Trillion tax and spending spree, which has the "DNA " of the Green New Deal agenda with higher taxes, amnesty for illegal immigrants during a border crisis, and a laundry list of other left-wing priorities that have nothing to do with infrastructure.
- Keep Nine Amendment. Ask them to co-sponsor (or thank them for co-sponsoring) H.J.Res. 9/S.J.Res. 11 to prevent court packing and protect the independence of the Supreme Court (read more here).
